| Layla's sophisticated style is achieved through the use of simple linear forms. Combining geometric design with ergonomic comfort, Layla is a stunning addition to any lounge or reception area.

| Available as an armchair, three-seater or generously proportioned four-seater sofa, Layla's versatility suits a range of workspace needs.

| Whilst striking stitch detail defines the back, Layla's clean lines are reflected in the design of the tubular frame base.

The collection is further enhanced by a selection of complementary tables. The Layla collection is the perfect example of classic, simple design, where less is definitely more.
